

Wear Where?

YOUNG PERSON LED

ABOUT

Have you ever thought about where you wear your clothes?

Every clothing item, such as a dress, jacket, top, skirt or trousers, is designed for a different section of the body.

But what if we could wear our clothing differently from how it was designed? What would happen if we turned our clothing literally upside down, inside out, and on its head?

PREP TIME

10 mins

COOKING TIME

15+ mins

SERVES

1+ people

INGREDIENTS

- Your wardrobe at home and/or a variety of clothing
- Drawing materials of your choice – paper & pens, pencils, crayons etc.
- Optional: A Mirror, Music

Designed Resources

You can use these resources digitally or printed:

- Wear Where? Task Cards
- Wear Where? Draw and Reflect Activity Sheet

LET'S EXPERIMENT!

You can play this for as long as you like and either by yourself or with lots of people!

Wear Where?

1. Go to your wardrobe and find a variety of clothing you would like to use.

This can include shoes, accessories and anything else that you wear!

2. Follow the instructions on the different 'Wear Where?' Task Cards.

The tasks can be followed in any order.

You can choose to play all the cards or only a few of them.

You can use different clothing items for each task card or use the same clothing items in each task. Experiment for as long as you like!

3. After you have finished playing the 'Wear Where?' task cards, complete the 'Draw and Reflect' activity sheet. You can:

Print the activity sheet and fill it out on paper.

OR

Write the questions and your answers in your own paper or notebook.

OR

Use and fill in the activity sheet digitally or online.

4. Repeat the process another day or with different clothes or with different people!

Let's keep cooking!

Once you have played all the 'Wear Where?' task cards, create your own instructions! How creative can you be?

Wear Where?

YOUNG PERSON LED

ABOUT

Have you ever thought about where you wear your clothes?

Every clothing item, such as a dress, jacket, top, skirt or trousers, is designed for a different section of the body.

But what if we could wear our clothing differently from how it was designed? What would happen if we turned our clothing literally upside down, inside out, and on its head?

PREP TIME

10 mins

COOKING TIME

15+ mins

SERVES

1+ people

INGREDIENTS

- Your wardrobe at home and/or a variety of clothing
- Drawing materials of your choice – paper & pens, pencils, crayons etc.
- Optional: A Mirror, Music

Designed Resources

You can use these resources digitally or printed:

- Wear Where? Task Cards
- Wear Where? Draw and Reflect Activity Sheet

LET'S EXPERIMENT!

You can play this for as long as you like and either by yourself or with lots of people!

Wear Where?

1. Go to your wardrobe and find a variety of clothing you would like to use.

This can include shoes, accessories and anything else that you wear!

2. Follow the instructions on the different 'Wear Where?' Task Cards.

The tasks can be followed in any order.

You can choose to play all the cards or only a few of them.

You can use different clothing items for each task card or use the same clothing items in each task. Experiment for as long as you like!

3. After you have finished playing the 'Wear Where?' task cards, complete the 'Draw and Reflect' activity sheet. You can:

Print the activity sheet and fill it out on paper.

OR

Write the questions and your answers in your own paper or notebook.

OR

Use and fill in the activity sheet digitally or online.

4. Repeat the process another day or with different clothes or with different people!

Let's keep cooking!

Once you have played all the 'Wear Where?' task cards, create your own instructions! How creative can you be?